

* CT scans are not routinely performed in children. Review daily, and perform lumbar puncture as soon as the contraindication(s) have resolved. If lumbar puncture is still contraindicated, reassess and treat accordingly.

† Clinical contraindications to lumbar puncture and signs of impending herniation include a rapidly deteriorating level of consciousness, brainstem signs and very recent seizures.